

HANNAH PIKE

About: Experienced writer, researcher, and lifelong student of the world. Passionate about developmental economics, inclusive storytelling, international affairs, and access to quality education for all. Skills include data analysis, strategic communication, public speaking, and teaching.

EDUCATION

University of Oklahoma
Norman, Oklahoma

August 2016 – May 2020
GPA: 3.92

→ BA in economics and BJ
in professional writing
→ Honors, French minor

Oxford University
Oxford, England

July 2017
→ Arts and culture writing colloquium

Blaise-Pascal University
Clermont-Ferrand, France

June 2017
→ Sociology of migration and francophone literature

HONORS & AWARDS

→ Scholarship-based:
National Merit Scholar,
Ann Balch Award,
Economics Department
Scholarship, Dean's
Honor Roll 2016-2019
→ Leadership-based:
President's Leadership
Class, PACE Award, Robert
Dean Bass Memorial
Scholarship

WORK EXPERIENCE

NASA Research Intern: Analyst at Norman
Economic Development Coalition; strategizes ways to create jobs and retain young people
(June 2019 – Present)

Photography Business Owner: H. Pike Event
Photography manager and photographer; strives for meaningful storytelling and to empower through representation
(August 2017 – Present)

Business Reporter: Economic and political journalist at The Oklahoman; used statistical models to analyze data, covered breaking news, and coordinated graphs and visuals
(June 2018 – August 2018)

PR and Marketing Assistant: Created marketing tools, wrote, and ran social media at the Sam Noble Museum; increased quantity of engaged users by 135 percent to over 10,000
(January 2018 – May 2018)

SELECTED PUBLICATIONS & PRESENTATIONS

Published fiction author;
first novel out winter 2019

“How Majority-
Minority Districting
Harms African Americans in the U.S.” economics presentation at Undergraduate Research Day

→ “Trade war
threatens $208 M of Oklahoma’s exports”
→ “Women advance in Oklahoma’s most crowded state
Senate primary”
For The Oklahoman,
The Tulsa World, and the AP

---

LANGUAGES

English

(First language)

→ Fluent

→ Exceptional grammar and writing skills

French

(Second language)

→ Conversational-level fluency

→ Good reading, writing, and speaking abilities

---

RESEARCH

→ Catalogues and analyzes historical population and economic data about pre-French Revolution France to better understand inequality at the time under the guidance of Dr. Daniel Hicks, University of California Berkeley

---

SERVICE

→ 80+ hours of volunteerism with organizations such as LoveWorks Leadership and the OU Food Pantry
→ Over $1500 personally fundraised for St. Jude Children's Research Hospital
→ Created and sold art and t-shirts benefitting organizations that support women and girls

LEADERSHIP & INVOLVEMENT

Student Government Association

→ Vice Presidential Task Force Director for OU's first multicultural newsletter: working toward creating a representative publication

(January 2019 – Present)

→ SGA representative on OU Publications Board:

ensured students of all sorts were heard by school newspaper, yearbook, magazine

(September 2018 – May 2019)

→ Executive cabinet member in the Department of Inclusivity: created programs and educational events to foster inclusion

(March 2018 – December 2018)

Delta Delta Delta

→ Chair of Inclusivity and Allyship: created new position, which involves educating members weekly about white privilege and inequality and running several committees that take real action to proactively improve inclusivity

(January 2019 – Present)

→ Media Chairman: told the story of our chapter and shared it with others through photos, videos

(January 2017 – December 2017)

President's Leadership Class

→ George Lynn Cross Mentor to freshman leaders: academic mentor to new students

(September 2017 – May 2018)

Pre-Law Society Member

(January 2018 – Present)

Economics Club Member

(September 2017 – Present)

SKILLS

→ Data analysis and research with RStudio and Microsoft Excel

→ Public speaking and presentations

→ AP Style and copy-editing

→ Microsoft Office

→ InDesign and Adobe Photoshop

→ Wordpress and website design